Vice President Commiserates with Families of Stampede Victims

The Vice President of the Republic, H.E Professor Naana Jane Opoku-Agyemang, has received with profound sorrow the tragic news of the stampede that claimed the lives of six young Ghanaians, all aspiring to join the Ghana Armed Forces, and left several others injured.

She extends her heartfelt condolences to the bereaved families and wishes a speedy and full recovery to those affected.

The Vice President calls on all Ghanaians to remain calm as authorities conduct a thorough investigation into the incident and take urgent measures to prevent such tragedies in the future.
