PRESS RELEASE

POLICE ARREST TWO FOR TRAFFICKING SUSPECTED NARCOTIC DRUGS

1. The Volta North Regional Police Command has arrested two suspects for transporting substances suspected to be narcotic drugs in the Volta Region.
2. The suspects, identified as Etornam Vumadzi, a driver, and Emmanuel Komlagah, were arrested on Friday, 30th January 2026, while transporting the suspected narcotic substances from Godenu towards Togo. The arrest followed an intelligence led operation indicating that a Toyota minibus with registration number GT-6592-19 was heading towards Togo with a consignment suspected to be narcotic drugs.
3. A search conducted on the vehicle led to the retrieval of eighteen (18) sacks, each containing thirty-six (36) yellow oval parcels, with a total of six hundred and forty-eight (648) parcels suspected to be narcotic drugs.
4. Preliminary investigations further established that a third party, identified only as Joseph, spoke to the police team on phone and attempted to offer an amount of one hundred and fifty thousand Ghana cedis (GHC150,000.00) as a bribe, while the suspects also offered thirty two thousand Ghana cedis (GHC32,000.00) upfront. All offers were rejected by the police officers.
5. The suspects are currently in police custody assisting investigations and will be put before court to face the full rigours of the law.
