FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LEGAL NOTICE TO DESIST FROM THE PUBLICATION, REPUBLICATION, AND DISSEMINATION OF FALSE AND DEFAMATORY STATEMENTS CONCERNING
HON. SAMMY GYAMFI, ESQ.

We issue this Legal Notice in our capacity as Solicitors for Hon. Sammy Gyamfi Esq., and pursuant to his express instructions.

Our Client has drawn our attention to false and defamatory publications currently circulating in both traditional and social media alleging, among other things, that one Mr. Dominic Bonsu is or was his bodyguard and that Mr. Bonsu absconded with GH¢200 million belonging to the Ghana Gold Board. These allegations are entirely false, malicious, reckless and devoid of any factual or legal basis.

Accordingly, all persons are hereby placed on formal notice to immediately cease and desist from originating, publishing, republishing, circulating, transmitting, or otherwise disseminating these false and defamatory statements in any form or medium.

Our Client expressly reserves his right to commence civil proceedings, without further notice, against every individual or entity responsible for the publication or republication of the defamatory material.

For the avoidance of doubt:

1. Hon. Sammy Gyamfi, Esq. has never met, known, engaged or maintained any personal or professional relationship whatsoever with Mr. Dominic Bonsu.
2. Mr. Dominic Bonsu has never served as the bodyguard, personal security officer, employee, agent, representative, or associate of our Client.
3. The allegation that Mr. Dominic Bonsu absconded with GH¢200 million belonging to the Ghana Gold Board is false, fabricated, malicious, and wholly without factual or legal foundation.

Elyon Heights Building,
East-Legon Hills, Accra.

4. Neither our Client nor the Ghana Gold Board entrusted, transferred or paid GH¢200 million, or any other public funds, to Mr. Dominic Bonsu.

5. Any publication suggesting that our Client authorised, facilitated, participated in, condoned, or benefited from any alleged financial impropriety is false, defamatory and actionable at law.

6. The mere fact, if any, that Dominic Bonsu Ventures held a licence issued by, or was regulated by, the Ghana Gold Board neither establishes nor can lawfully be construed as establishing any personal, professional, or business relationship between Mr. Dominic Bonsu and our Client.

TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that each fresh publication, republication, transmission, or dissemination of these allegations shall constitute a separate actionable wrong for which the publisher, author, broadcaster, administrator, editor, or any person involved in its dissemination may be held personally liable.

Neither attribution to a third party nor reliance upon content obtained from social media or other online sources shall constitute a defence to the publication of defamatory material.

Our Client has instructed us to institute all necessary civil legal proceedings, including claims for general damages, aggravated damages, exemplary damages where appropriate, injunctive relief, costs and any further or ancillary relief available in law, against any person or entity that publishes, republishes or disseminates these false and defamatory allegations.

This Notice is issued without prejudice to all rights and remedies available to our Client, all of which are hereby expressly reserved.
